

You are invited to the NYSUT NASSAU REGIONAL EARLY CAREER MEMBER CONFERENCE

*To be held at the Huntington Hilton
Melville, New York
December 1, 2018*

The Early Career Member Conference is designed to acquaint members in the first 5 years of their career with the vast array of professional and personal services union membership provides. This year's Early Career Member Conference offers many of the same workshops that were presented at last February's conference as well as some new offerings. All workshops address issues of interest and concern to early career members. Members who attended the previous conference may wish to attend again to take advantage of our new workshop offerings or some of the workshops they didn't get a chance to take at the last conference.

There is no charge to attend this conference.

Workshops we are offering again include:

- Navigating the Increasingly Complex Certification Maze
- Understanding the Protections Provided by Tenure ... And What It Doesn't Provide
- The Career-Threatening Perils of Misusing Social Media
- NYSUT's Education & Learning Trust – A Valuable Professional Resource for Early Career Educators
- What You Need to Know NOW About the Teachers' Retirement System
- What Rights and Benefits Do You Receive From Union Membership?

Workshops we are offering for the first time include:

- Student Debt Clinic – What Resources Are Available to Help You Manage Student Debt?
- Laws That Affect Your Professional Life (Mandated Reporting, DASA, Sexual Harassment)
- Building Financial Security Involves More Than Waiting to Collect Your Pension
- Discussion Groups to Explore Topics of Interest to Attendees

Breakfast and Lunch will be served and a Cocktail Reception will conclude the conference
